Academic Peers Feedback

1. A new course must be introduced to encourage the use Aurdino and IoT. The introduction of emerging platform of OS will help students towards practical implementation of projects.
2. Various simulation techniques need to be familiarized through modified courses.
3. A revision is needed in Discrete-Time Signal Processing.
4. A revision is needed Optical Communication (PT)

Employers Feedback

- A course modification can be done related to personality skill development .
- An impact towards social awareness can be created through modified course.
- Implemetation of project can be encouraged more towards developing social responsibilty.
